Author: S.L. Menear

Introduction by Kathy McGrath-Burger

Retired airline pilot Sharon Menear began her career as a flight attendant and later, after training, became a pilot in 1980. After retirement, Sharon wanted to try her hand at writing a novel. Her favorite novels have always been thrillers, so she chose to write in that genre. (She uses S.L. Menear as her author name.)

Drawing from her experiences during two airline careers, she crafted the edge-of-your-seat thriller Flight to Redemption, which is her award-winning debut novel and Book One in the Samantha Starr Series. Sharon now has 5 thrillers in the Starr series, and she recently started a new mystery/suspense series based in Palm Beach County. Sharon currently resides in Palm Beach County.

Scholarships***

The AAUW Pompano Beach Branch awards Partial tuition scholarships to women from Broward and Palm Beach Counties. Candidates must have two years of college and intend to complete a degree in a four-year institution. In addition, they must have a GPA of B (3.0) or higher. Financial need is a consideration.

Our Scholarship committee reviews each application and conducts personal interviews. The number of scholarships awarded depends upon funds raised through special events and individual donations.

This Dollars for Scholars luncheon is our primary scholarship fundraiser. All monies collected are earmarked for student support.

This is our mission. Donations encouraged!
